NURSING MOTHERS
INTERIM REPORT OF THE PEOPLE'S LEAGUE OF HEALTH

In each hospital the women enrolled at the antenatal clinic were divided into two main groups by placing them alternately on separate lists. The women in one group received the supplements, while those in the other were kept as controls. Within each of these groups the women were further classified into primigravidæ and multiparæ. These two groups were again subdivided into women under 25, between 25 and 30, and over 30 years. All
